And be in good standing with the State Bar. 2) Attend the appropriate training or demonstrate requisite experience (at least two cases in each of the legal areas for which you want to receive referrals. 3) Abide by the Rules and Fee Protocol (call us (1877-474-2584) for a copy or visit our

It is the goal of the Housing Rights Lawyer Referral Service (a project of Housing Rights, Inc.) to provide free and low cost legal services to low and lower income households who would not otherwise have access to quality legal representation, taking into consideration the economic needs of the client, so that no one is denied services due to inability to pay.

website at: www.housingrights.org/lawyers.htm). 4) Pay an administrative fee upon acceptance into the panel and for each referral that you accept for representation. 5) Report on all cases accepted from HRI on a form provided by HRI and 6) Contribute 15% of fees collected.

HRI will make three types of referrals; pro bono, contingency fee and reduced fee. You just let us know how many of which type you would like to receive during the year. !

Wisdom is knowing what to do next, skill is knowing how to do it, and virtue is doing it.—David Starr Jordan

Our Lawyer Referral Service includes the general Housing Rights panel, a fair housing sub-panel (which includes predatory lending), a mediation panel and a personal injury panel (related to housing).

Housing Rights Training

Housing Rights, Inc. will sponsor Housing Rights Training throughout the year. If you would like to be notified of the times and locations of this training please let us know. Call or e-mail: hri@housingrights.com
